Folsom Chamber of Commerce Endorses Scott Jones for Sheriff

(Folsom, CA, MAY 23, 2018) — The Folsom Chamber of Commerce announced today its endorsement for Scott Jones for reelection as Sacramento County Sheriff. The Chamber advocates for its members and the health of the business community by supporting and promoting pro-business candidates at the local and statewide level.

“We are pleased the Folsom Chamber of Commerce is supporting Sheriff Jones for reelection,” said Dan Ryan, local business owner and Chairman of the Board. “Sheriff Jones has a strong background of community collaboration and dedicated professionalism. We believe safety in our homes, schools and businesses are key to a vibrant and growing community and that Scott Jones is the leader we need to keep Folsom safe.”

The Folsom Chamber joins the Folsom Police Officers Association in endorsing Sheriff Jones and his bid for reelection.

Jones serves Sacramento County after being elected in 2010 and reelected in 2014. His dedication to a community-based department, leadership through the recession, and visibility on the state and national levels, has contributed to a vibrant and effective department.

“We endorse Scott Jones for Sheriff. He is the leader Sacramento County - and the City of Folsom need,” Ryan said

The Folsom Chamber of Commerce represents almost 1,000 members in the greater Folsom area.
